

FY 2026

CDC Budget Overview

The fiscal year (FY) 2026 request for CDC funding is $4.243 billion.

The FY 2026 President's Budget supports CDC in meeting its core mission to prevent, detect, and respond to infectious disease and emerging health threats.

Protecting Americans from infectious diseases by creating enhanced respiratory threat detection and a Biothreat Radar program that incorporates progress made in advanced molecular detection to rapidly detect emerging threats.

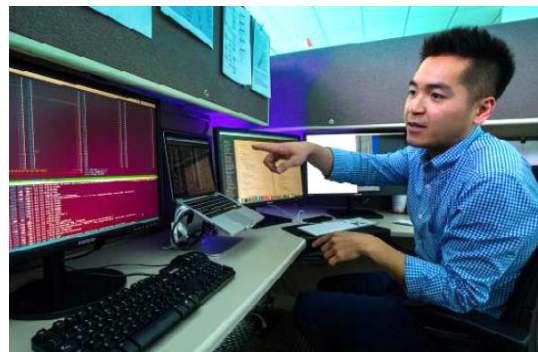

Advancing public health preparedness to protect communities from health threats by incorporating elements of the Administration for Strategic Preparedness and Response (ASPR) to bolster response capacity.

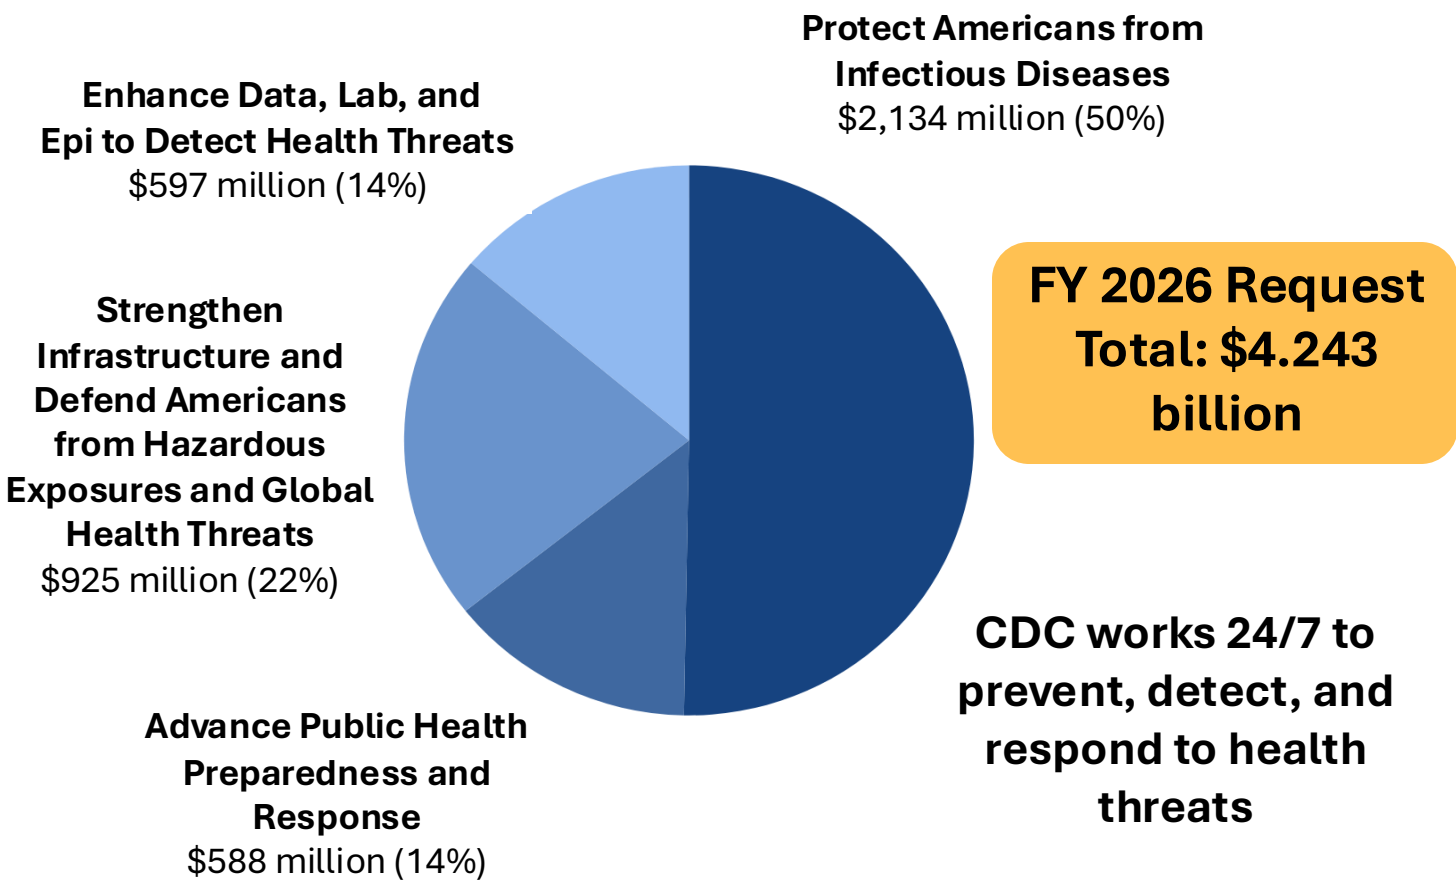

Building public health infrastructure and defending Americans from hazardous exposures and global health threats by strengthening global and domestic threat prediction and response.

Enhancing data, laboratory, and epidemiology to enhance threat detection and response by modernizing data systems and infrastructure, advancing laboratory science and safety, and supporting public health professionals to monitor and respond to health threats.

As the nation's health protection agency, CDC conducts critical science and provides health information that saves lives and protects people from health threats.
